Complementary Colors in Framing Design

Want to make a change? Add some color and energy to your home decor. Let us be bold and help you choose bright colored mats for artwork that will enhance both the art and your home. Mats do not have to match the art-they have to blend and help present it. And we have all the experience necessary to create beautiful frame designs.

Matting adds flavor and interest to your art. The mat design depends upon the look of the art and how you want it presented in your home. Let us design a combination of complementary mat colors, shapes, textures, and

July Art Show

California Rodeo July 16 - 19

We know you'll be there. This year you will be able to buy your Rodeo poster already framed (by Artistic HangUps, of course) if you like. But if you want to design your own framing, bring it to our expert designers. Mention the coupon in this newsletter to receive a total of 25% off your custom framing purchase!

July Art Show

Photography
by Bob Aker and Suzan Dowell-Glaser

Bob Aker returns to display his wonderful photographs - with lots of Western subjects - perfect for Rodeo week.

He'll be sharing the "stage" with another great local photographer, Suzan Dowell-Glaser who will be displaying her work

sizes to create a unique look just for you.

Framing with color can be fun.
Combining different mat colors and using two or three mats in a project adds depth and dimension so the art pops out. When mats are layered, the tones in the art come alive. Imagine a decorative mat with multi-colored squares. We can do that! Just see the example shown here. By creating a party of color around the art, a festive frame design is perfect for any wall. These squares are the same size, but we can imagine the possibilities of different sizes and angles too. Add a beautiful frame-metal or wood-and your design is complete. So come in with your art and we will create an exciting, colorful, custom look just for you.

at Artistic HangUps for the first time. Come in throughout the month of July to view the work of these talented photographers. We think you'll find something you can't live without!
